The Adventures of Vineyard Bruiser

By Bella Bergin

Hi, I'm Bruiser! I'm a 3-year-old Cane Corso mix and I'm ready for my forever home! I'm a big boy with a big personality, and I'm looking for a family that can keep up with my adventures and give me the love I deserve.

I'm pretty easy-going around people and other dogs, but I do need someone who knows how to handle a strong, confident dog. I'm not the smallest guy, so I'm looking for a family that can manage my size and strength with ease. I'm also a little sensitive to loud noises, so a quieter home would be ideal for me.

I'm housetrained and know some basic commands like sit and stay. I'm still learning more, and I'm ready for someone who wants to work with me and keep my mind and body busy. I'm a smart dog and I love to learn new things!

I'm looking for a family that can give me the structure I need, plenty of exercise, and a little patience as I settle into my new home. I'm ready to be your best friend and I can't wait to show you what I'm all about!

Save the Date!
